The Last Supper

Narrator: It was the day of unleavened bread, when the Passover lamb was going to be sacrificed.

Jesus: Go into the city and prepare the Passover feast so that we can eat.

Disciples 1 & 2: Where should we prepare the meal?

Jesus: When you get into the city, you will see a man who’s carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him into the house he enters. And say to the man of the house: “The Master says, ‘Where is the guest chamber where I will eat the Passover feast with my disciples?’”

Disciple 1: Ok!

Jesus: He will show you a large room, and you can make the meal there.

Disciple 2: Sounds good!

(Disciple 1 and 2 exit)

Narrator: Later that evening, Jesus and his 12 apostles went to this room and sat down for the Passover feast.

(Enter Jesus, Apostle 1, Peter, and Judas.)

Jesus: I really wanted to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. I will not eat another until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

Apostle 1: I wonder what Jesus means...

Jesus: Take and eat; this is my body which is given up for you. Do this in memory of me.

Narrator: Then Jesus took a cup of wine...
Jesus: Drink this, for it is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until I drink it anew with you in my Father’s kingdom.

Narrator: After dinner, Jesus poured water into a basin and began to wash the apostles’ feet.

Peter: Lord, are you going to wash my feet?

Jesus: You don’t understand what I’m doing now, but you will understand later.

Peter: You will never wash my feet!

Jesus: If I do not wash your feet, you have not part with me.

Peter: Then don’t just wash my feet, wash also my hands and my head!

Jesus: He who is clean needs only to wash his feet to be clean all over. And you are clean - but not all of you.

Narrator: Jesus said not everyone was clean because he knew who was going to betray him.

Jesus: Just as I have washed your feet, you should wash each other’s feet. The servant is not greater than his lord.

Narrator: Jesus knew who was going to betray him, so he said...

Jesus: I know that one of you is going to betray me.

Peter: Lord, who is it?

Jesus: It’s the person I will give a piece bread to.

Narrator: And Jesus dipped a piece of bread in the bowl, and handed it to Judas Iscariot.

Jesus: Judas, what you must do, do quickly.

(Judas leaves.)
